Services

Since teaching and learning at CHRIST is research led, the Library and Information Centres work round the clock. All the campuses have multi-disciplinary libraries well stacked with books and journals. Students can access information on any book or journal article across campuses online. Each student is given a unique identification number for this purpose. The library timing is from morning 8:00 am to 9:00pm in the night.

The university is known for the training and placement services it offers to the students. Each department has a placement representative and they organise career development programmes and upskilling trainings for interested students. By the final year, recruiters conduct skills assessment and interviews for campus selection with good salary packages.

There are medical centres with qualified doctors and nurses with ambulance service on standby in all campuses. The students' wellbeing both mental and physical is given paramount importance on campus and students can approach counsellors for guidance and comfort for their mental health. All campuses are adequately staffed with wellbeing specialists. Strict professional confidentiality is maintained in transactions between students' and wellbeing specialists.

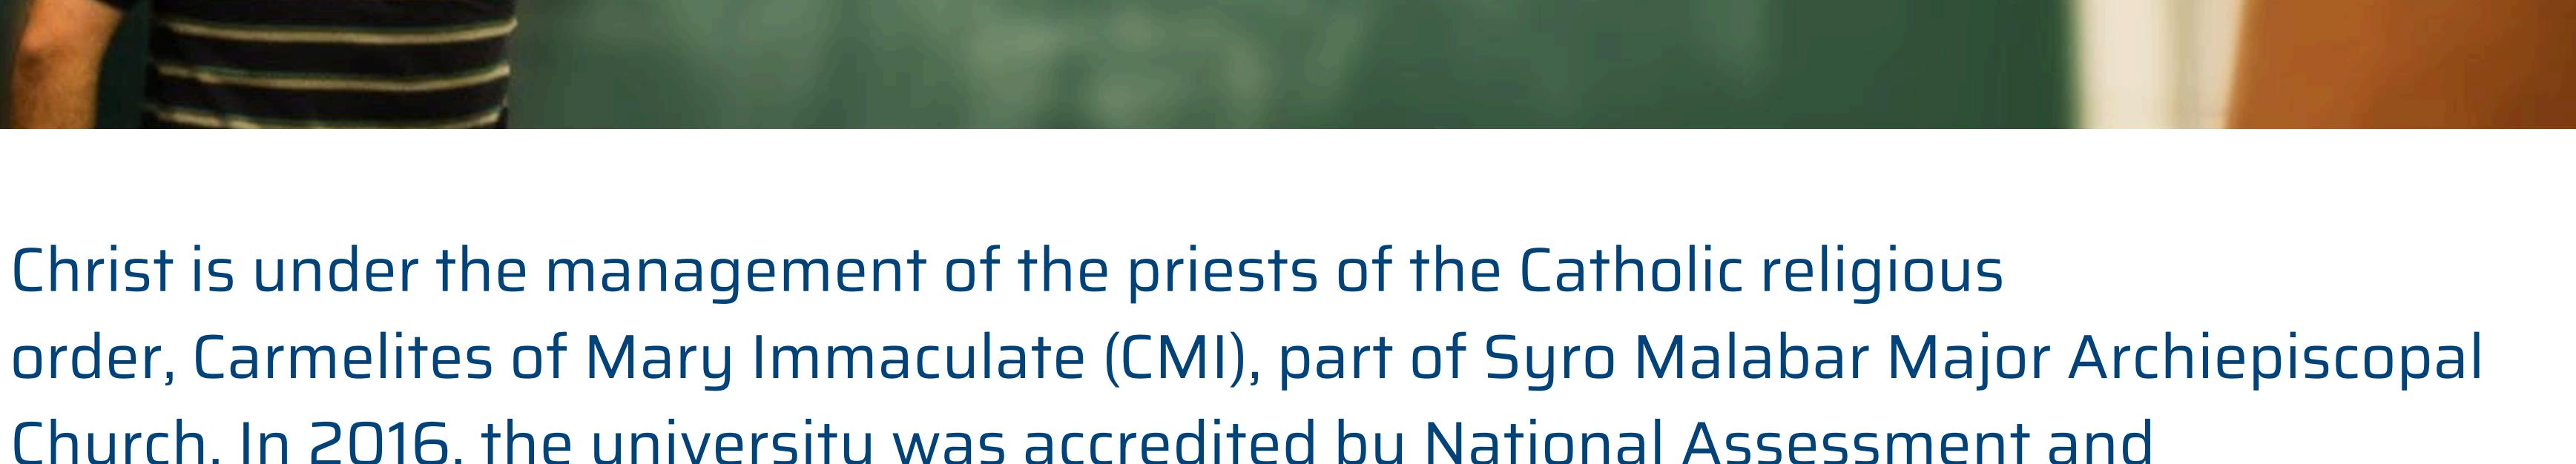

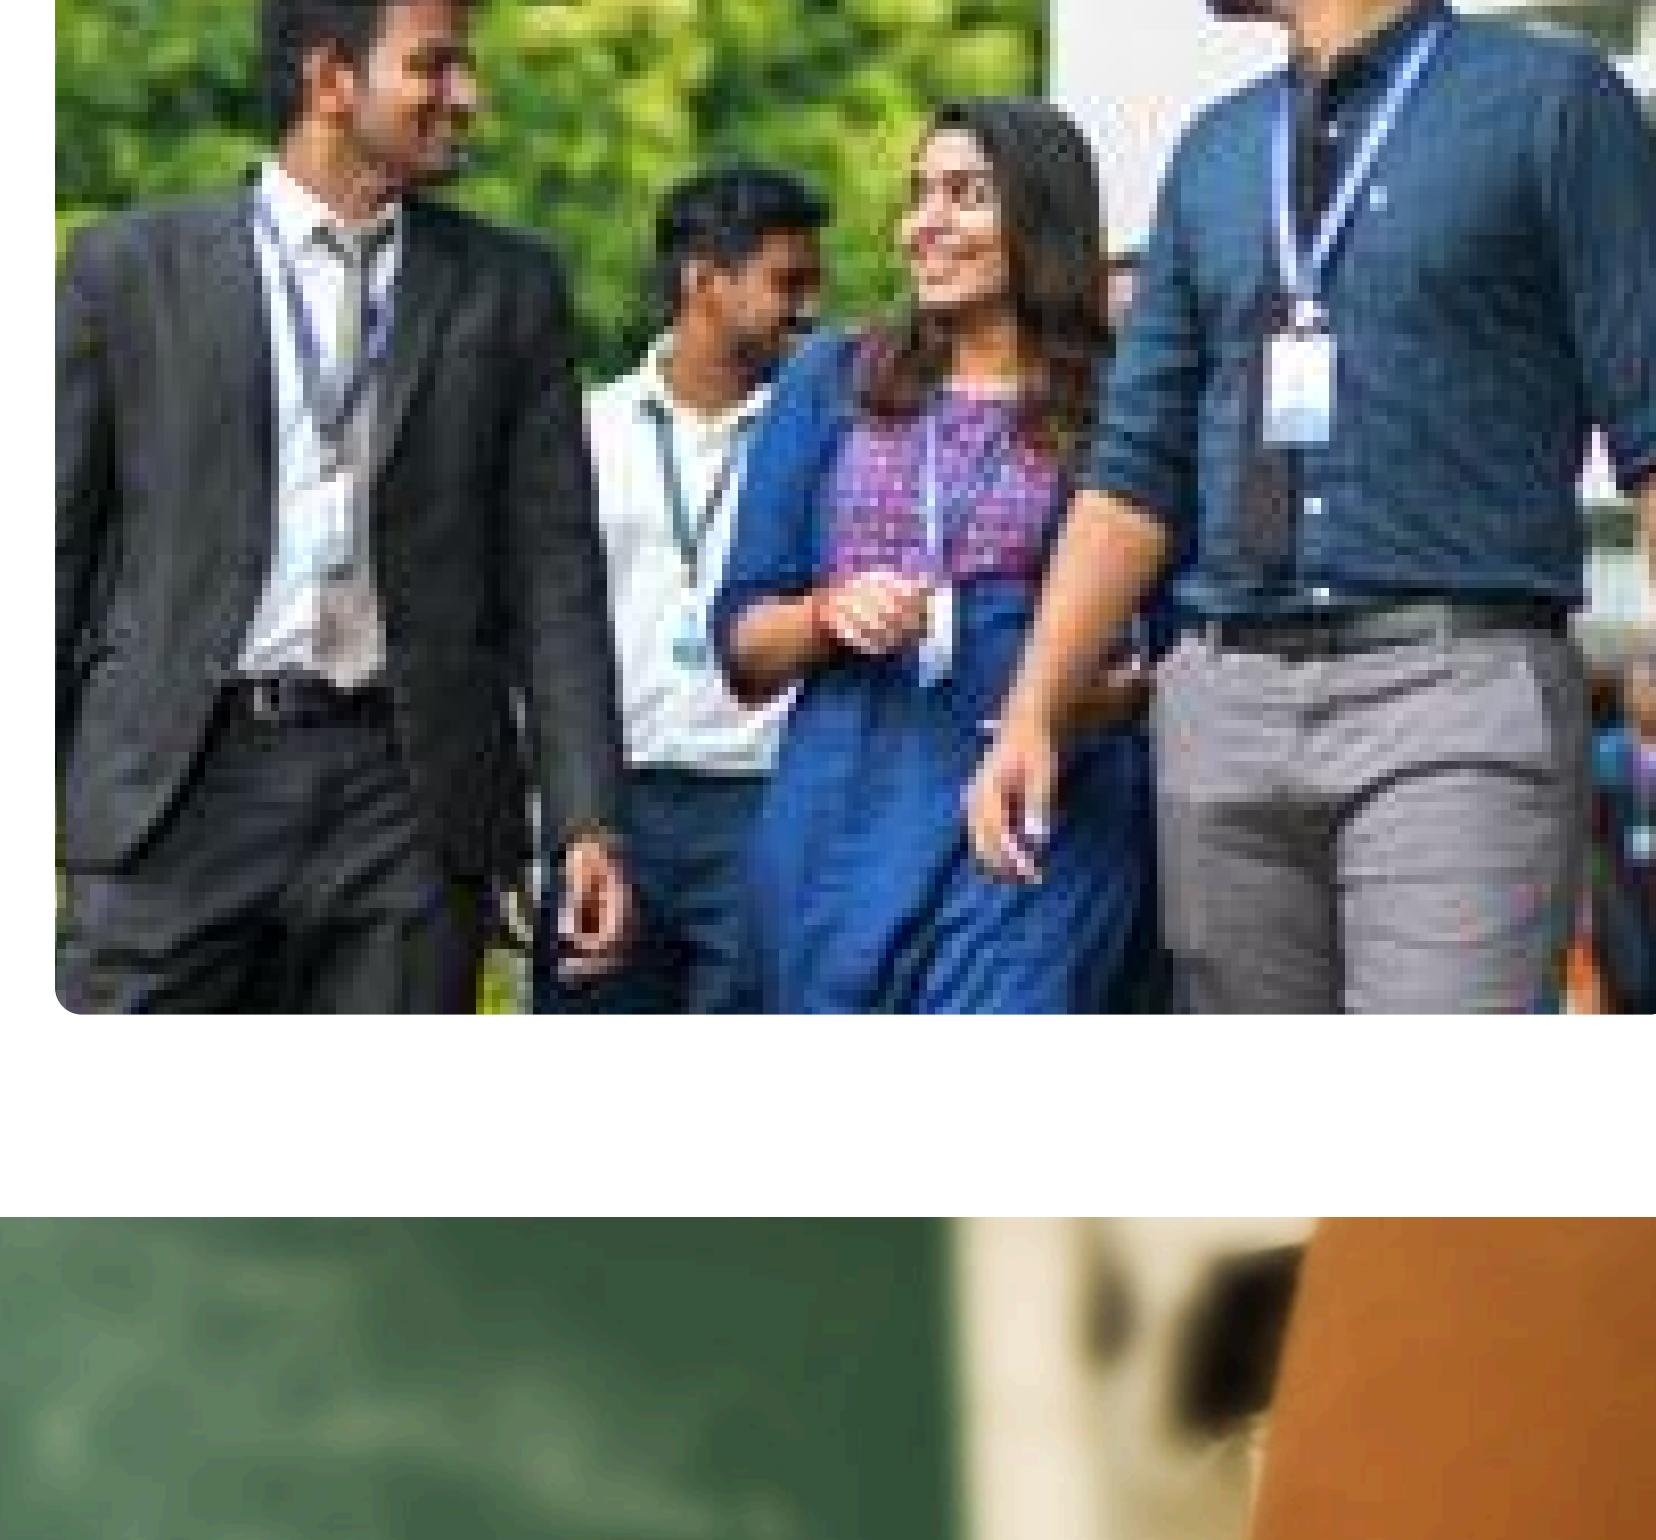

Christ university campuses are a networked space with all systems and structures digitised for security, easy access and administration. From the admission process, online classes, live streaming of events to other campuses and the public to campus wide surveillance, the efficient IT services team makes sure every computer and projector on campuses run efficiently without a glitch.
